Venture Miami Scholarship | Frequently Asked Questions

What does “last dollar” scholarship mean?

Last-dollar scholarships are designed to cover remaining tuition* costs after all scholarships, grants, and institutional aid have been applied. Simply put, last dollar scholarships cover the “unmet need” or gap.

*If attending the University of Miami, awards will be based on total cost of attendance, not tuition.

Do I have to apply to the FAFSA to be eligible for this scholarship?

Yes. The Venture Miami Scholarship is a last dollar, needs-based scholarship. This means you have exhausted all other scholarship and grant opportunities available to you, most notably federal aid. In addition, we are using Pell Grant qualifications as one metric to determine need.

Do I still qualify if I am not a Pell Grant recipient?

Completing the FAFSA and qualifying for the Pell Grant is a requirement for all applicants except select students attending Miami-Dade College. Miami-Dade College students who have a household income less than 80% of the AMI for the City of Miami qualify for the Venture Miami Scholarship. * To check your eligibility, please check the Housing Income Limits on the City of Miami Website.

Why do I need to upload my FAFSA?

The committee reviewing your application will use your FAFSA to verify the information provided on your application. Additionally, because completing the FAFSA is a requirement for this application, we request a copy to ensure this requirement is met.

Do I have to wait until I received my Financial Aid Letter from my university before applying to this scholarship?

Yes. However, you can begin the application process as you await your financial aid letter. You will need information from the Letter to complete the Unmet Need Calculator. We suggest asking your school’s Financial Aid Office for an estimate letter if you have not yet received your financial aid letter.

Who can I talk to at my school if I have questions about Financial Aid and whether I am eligible for this scholarship?

Why do I have to apply each semester?

Where can I do to find more information about other scholarship and financial aid opportunities available to me?
